

I don't understand. I don't know.

Is this right? Is this OK?

What does... mean?

I'm sorry. What are we supposed to do?

Can you say it again, please? Can you play it again, please?

How do you say... in English? How do you spell...? How do you pronounce...?

Yeah, I guess so. / No, I guess not.

Oh, that's great. / Oh, that's terrible.

Really? That's interesting.

You're kidding!

Well,...

You know,...

You see,...

Do you know what I meant?

I mean,...

Actually,...

Asking for clarification and asking for more details

USEFUL EXPRESSIONS FOR THE ENGLISH CLASS

I think that's right. / I think that's wrong.

Let's ask the teacher about this.

What did you put/write for number (1)? How did you answer number (1)?

I agree. / I don't agree.

What do you think?

And what about...?

What do you mean?

Really? Why?

So, then what (happened)?

What do you think?

I didn't hear what you said.

Who's going to begin?

Which role are you going to take?

Whose turn is it?

I think we're finished. What should we do now?

I'll be... You be...

It's my turn. It's your turn.

You start. Let's start.